

Area

43.098 square kilometres

Capital

Copenhagen (København) 1.1 million inhabitants (2007)

Currency

Danish Kroner, DKK. 1 krone = 100 øre

1 USD = 5,00 DKK November 2009

1 Euro = 7,45 DKK November 2009

Education

Recognition of foreign qualifications. Visit www.ciriusonline.dk to get an assessment of your non-Danish degrees, diplomas and certificates and information about international recognition or your qualification.

Ethnic distribution

91,2% Danes.

Immigrants and their descendants constitute about 8.8 % of the population (2007)

Geographic region

Scandinavia

Head of Government

Lars Lykke Rasmussen (since april 2009).

Head of State

Queen Margrethe II (since 14 January 1972)

Language

Danish

Library

The Danish Libraries are a public service offered free of charge to users.

To register as a borrower present your health insurance card ("sygesikringsbevis") and one other piece of identification, preferably a photo-ID, at any branch.

Life expectancy

Women 80,4 years, men 75,9 years (2006)

Major cities

Copenhagen 1.167.000 inhabitants

Århus 307.000 inhabitants

Odense 189.000 inhabitants

Aalborg 197.000 inhabitants

(2009)

Measurements

1 inch = 2.54 cm

1 foot = 30.48 cm

1 yard = 91.44 cm

For conversions take a look here

Medicine

Prescription medicines only available at pharmacies (Pharmacy = Apotek)-

You need a doctor or dentists prescription.

Remember to bring you yellow health card.

Member of:

UN, OECD, EU, Nato, Schengen, OSCE, IMF, WTO and others.

Neighbouring countries

Germany, Norway and Sweden

Population

5.511.451 (1st January 2009)

Population density

126,4 per square kilometres

Religion

90% Protestants